

AUSTRALIAN NURSES IN WW1

To serve with the Australian Army Nursing Service at least three years service was required in Medical and Surgical Nursing in a recognised Hospital and nurses were to be aged between 21 and 45 years. They were to be either single women or widowed.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1914.

AUSTRALIAN MINISTERING ANGELS FOR THE FRONT.

NEW SOUTH WALES NURSES WHO SAIL WITH THE AUSTRALIAN NO. 2 GENERAL HOSPITAL CORPS.

This photo appeared in "The Globe and "Sunday Times War Pictorial" on Saturday 28th November 1914

NAMES OF NURSES (L-R)

INSERT STOBBO nee SCOBIE, Lousa

BACK ROW

Constance Adelaide STONE, Emily Broughton GWYNNE, Beryl Anderson CAMPBELL, Ida Mary GARVEN, Mary Theresa MARTIN, Sarah VARCOE, Gladys Gwynne LLEWELLYN and Nellie HILL.

THIRD ROW

Janet SORLEY, Grace Horwood THOMPSON, Lydia Kate KING, Bessie Ada TODHUNTER, Ursula Mary CARTER, Daisy Donaldson RICHMOND, Muriel Leontine WAKEFORD, Myra WYSE, Katherine Lawrence PORTER, Sophie Hill DURHAM, Sylvia Mabel WEIGALL

SECOND ROW

Margaret WOODS, Eveline A HOLLOWAY, Mary NASH, Nellice Constrace MORRICE, Annie Bertha PARRY, Florence Ethel SPALDING, Phyllis Mary BOISSIER, Elizabeth Mattie CHISHOLM, Flora ROBERTSON, Wilhelmina FILLANS, Amy ENNIS, Winifred Mary TAIT

FRONT ROW

Bessie Grace CRAGO, Margaret MCNULTY, Elizabeth KEAREY, Eileen May COLEMAN, Edith Annie FOSTER, Clara Molyneux DICKSON, Doothy Gwendolen CAWOOD, Annie Isobel COOMBES and Annie Gerogina Gordon FARQUAHAR

More than 2,139 Sisters served abroad

Over 900 served in Australia

130 transferred from the AANS to the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Service Reserve

21 AANS Died on Active Service

4 QAIMNSR died Overseas

4 AANS died in Australia before discharge

388 AANS were decorated

<http://ausww1nurses.weebly.com/>