CITATION (Date and place of action must be stated):

For distinguished and loyal service as Personal Assistant to GOC First Aust Army during the period Oct 44 to Mar 45.

Major WRIGHT has been untiring and most diligent in his work and has displayed initiative and enthusiasm of a high order frequently carrying out tasks outside his normal duties with cheerfulness and energy. His diplomatic approach to both senior and junior officers has enabled him on his own initiative to smooth out many minor difficulties or misunderstandings.

His advice to GOC has been most helpful and constructive and his industry and observation has saved much time and attention to detail by GOC who has thereby been enabled to concentrate on matters of greater importance concerning operations and maintenance.

Major WRIGHT has performed similar duties since May 1940 with equal distinction.
