Missing, Believed Killed

PILOT/OFFICER JACK WILL-COX is reported missing and believed killed in a plane crash off the Bahamas.

The above sad news was received by his mother, Mrs. C. Willcox, who now resides in Canterbury (Sydney).

Pilot/Officer Willcox attended the Leeton Intermediate High School and for a time after leaving school, was employed in Mr. Washington's barbers shop adjoining the Hotel Leeton. He later joined the police force, from which he resigned in order to enlist in the R.A.A.F. He was married, his wife also joined the Air Force and is with the W.A.A.A.F. in Sydney.

P./O. Jack Willcox left for abroad just over 12 months ago. He is well known to the people of Leeton and sympathy of the community will be extended to his mother, as well as his relatives in Leeton.
