Word was received on Monday by Mrs. Foley of the sudden death of her sister Jane's eldest son, Mr. A. S. Wools-Cobb, at Sydney. Albert was a member of the R.A.N., and served at home and abroad all through the Great War. He was abroad for two years on H.M.A.S. Australia during the Abyssinian war, and had just completed a few months' cruise and was looking forward to three weeks holiday with his family when death intervened. The sympathy of a large circle of relatives and friends is extended to his wife and three children, his mother and father, brother Henry, and ten sisters, four of whom are married and live in America, one at Traralgon, one at Mulwala, one in Melbourne, and three are at home with their parents at Dandenong.

Albert was born at Bonang and lived for many years at Dellicknora. He was 44 years of age.
