14th December, 6.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your further letter dated 10th instant, and have to state that your previous communication requesting the address of your son, Private J. C. Power, supplied no particulars whatever, consequently you were furnished with the address of the one soldier of that name traceable at that date, viz., No. 12048 Private James Clement Power, 9th Field Ambulance.

Your son, No. 6910 Private James Chester Power, 22nd Reinforcements, 6th Battalion, having only recently embarked, his records were not then held at this office. They have since come to hand, and show that his address is that which he himself furnished you, except that his regimental number is shown here as "6910". It is suggested that the two be used in conjunction as under:-

No. 6910/6903 Private J. C. Power,
22nd Reinforcements,
6th Battalion,
2nd Infantry Brigade,
1st Australian Division,
Australian Imperial Force,
AEROAD.

It is regretted the Department cannot suggest a method of effecting delivery to your son of the parcels and letters referred to, but you will understand that the origin of the error was the lack of necessary particulars in your inquiry.

Yours faithfully,

Major,
Officer i/o Base Records.
