Background

Coinciding with the Centenary of Anzacs our incentive behind the series of biographical publications is the Adelaide University Football and Cricket Club's desire to honour our players who served in the Great War (1914 - 1918). These brave men put on hold their academic, professional and sporting careers for King and Country in the name of peace and freedom. The AUFC/AUCC WW1 Memorial Committee is endeavouring to identify every one of our players who served and prepare life stories on all. This is to ensure their sacrifices and further contributions to society will be recognised by future generations.

On Anzac Day 2015, the Centenary of the Gallipoli landing, a memorial plaque was unveiled on the Adelaide University Oval Pavilion and this was followed by the erection of a picket fence between the pavilion and the scoreboard with each picket bearing a plaque with the name of an AUFC/AUCC player who served.

The following documentation relates to the life of Lancelot Alfred Hayward. It is compilation of information and photographs collected from a variety of historical sources.

HAYWARD Lancelot Alfred

MB BS

1891 - 1964

Lancelot Alfred Hayward was born in Norwood, South Australia, on 12th August 1891, the son of William Thornborough Hayward and his wife Florence. He attended St Peter's College and was prominent in newspaper reports of school cricket and swimming sports. He graduated MB BS from Adelaide University in 1914. Prior to the outbreak of war he was a 2nd lieutenant in the school cadets in 1909.

Hayward enlisted in the AIF on 19th April 1915. He was 23 years of age, single, 6ft, tall, and weighed 150lbs. His father was named as his next of kin. He was posted as a captain to 3 AGH at Mudros in August. He was evacuated sick to England in November on the Mauretania, and then sent back to Australia for a month. He had short attachments to 1 LHFA and 2 ASH on his return to Egypt, until he was sent to France to join 1 Div Engineers. He was promoted major in May 1917, and remained with the Engineers until September 1918. He was posted to 1 FdAmb and served with the FdAmb until I Aust Corps was withdrawn in October following the breaking of the Hindenburg Line. After the Armistice and during the Spanish 'flu epidemic Hayward was attached to 2 FdAmb. His appointment was terminated on the 2nd September 1919. Hayward was issued with the 1914-15 Star, the British War Medal and the Victory Medal

Hayward was appointed medical officer at the Barmera Hospital, South Australia in 1922. Hayward then moved to Perth where he worked as a Physician and Anaesthetist at the Perth Hospital. He was a Member of the Board of Health Western Australia in 1923. He had a younger brother living also in Perth and Hayward and his family, were often reported in the local newspapers for social events and their travel by rail and sea from Perth to Adelaide and back again visiting their large extended family. The family was living at St Georges Terrace, Perth in 1930 and in 1936 his family resided at Birdwood Parade, Dalkeith. He was President of the WA Branch of the BMA from 1938-9. He played golf at the Karrinyup Club. Hayward served with Home Forces from 1941-45 as DADMS 13 Bde, Western Command, and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel during WW2. Lancelot Alfred Hayward died on 5th September 1964.

Cricket

Lance played cricket for the University from 1912-1915.

World War I

Lance enlisted 1st May 1915, served in Egypt, Gallipoli and France and returned to Australia 11 May 1919. For further details of Lance's war service, see the "Blood, Sweat and Fears" summary above.

Lance was mentioned in a newspaper article around the time of his enlistment, and he attended a Reds and Blues event in Amiens, France on the 7th July 1917. (see articles below).

Dr. L. A. Hayward.

Dr. Lancelot A. Hayward is a son of Dr. W. T. Hayward, who, it was inadvertently stated yesterday, was included among the four. Dr. Lance Hayward is one of last year's graduates at the University of Adelaide. He was educated at St. Peter's College, where he became head prefect and a lieutenant of the college cadets. At college and at the University, where he matriculated after leaving St. Peter's College, he proved himself to be studious and a most popular and clever sportsman. He was vice-captain of the University Football Club.

REDS AND BLUES AT THE FRONT.

Monday's deliveries of soldiers' letters brought many interesting epistles from the western battle front. One from an old Prince Alfred College boy contained news that will be of interest to many friends and relatives of collegians. An extract from the letter reads:—"The event to chronicle is an annual reunion of old Saints and Princes in Amiens on the night of July 7. We caught buses at various places. Some came in ambulance motors, others again in E.S. waggons. We sat down to dinner at the Grand Salon Godbert, in Rue des Jacobins, at 6.30. The menu shows that the spread was a good one, but of course that is only a detail compared with the pleasure of meeting old pals, and of exchanging reminiscences for three or four hours. One quite forgot the war, and thought only of old times. When one meets an old classroom mate, he thinks only of the classroom and its associations) when "Bub" Short and Jimmy Diffe or "Konk" are of more importance than Sir Douglas Haig or Lloyd George! When one talks with chaps like Lance Hayward, Bill Phillips, and Dill Jose he quite forgets they are soldiers, and can only associate them with the 'Varsity oval. Harry Nott was there, up to his tricks that were so characteristic of him when he used to play cricket for 'Varsity 'B.' I remember one of his jokes was to put the ball in his pocket at the end of an over, and then help everyone to search for it. But what a gap John Blacket's absence made! And how absolutely necessary he is to make an affair like this perfect. I don't know of anyone who can quite take his place. Unfortunately we had to close up at about 10 o'clock, and I did not see half the chaps I would like to have spoken to. There were about 140 there, about half being from each college. We reached home at about one after dropping chaps at every village we passed through. It is surprising to find how few units do not possess an old "Saint" or a "Prince." The secretaries, Jack Creswell and L. G. Brown, did splendidly in the arrangements of the function."

Between the Wars

After returning from WWI Lance moved to Berri, SA and practiced there for five years. He was still on the Reserve of Officers of the 4th Military District and in December 1920 his rank was altered from Honorary Major to be Major. He was an active member on the Berri community and was involved in the Golf Club, Rowing Club, Boy Scouts, Racing Club and Swimming Club, he was on the Berri Institute Committee and was Patron of the Cricket Club.

In December 1924 Lance moved to Perth and married Margaret Camilla (nee Lloyd, born 1883) and took on the role of father to her two daughters, Lloydia Marjorie (born 1907) and Betty Margaret (born 1914)

Lance had a brick residence build at 80 Walcott St on the corner of Field & Walcott Streets, Mt Lawley where he commenced his practice in December 1924. In September 1925 he moved his residence and practice to 22 St George's Terrace. In late 1934 Lance had a new brick home built at Birdwood Parade, Nedlands (Dalkeith).

Lance and Margaret had had a number of overseas trips including a two-month trip to Java and Singapore on the 'Gascoyne in 1928 and 12 months in the UK and on the Continent (with daughter Betty) in 1934-35. In 1934 Lloydia married Mr ET Pettit of Wiluna and in 1936 Betty married Dr Frank Gallasch of Kellerberrin. In 1934

Lance was appointed to Perth Hospital Honorary Medical Staff as Assistant Physician for 3 years. Lance had his car stolen three times between 1928 and 1944. On the second occasion (1929), the car was recovered 580 miles away at Balladonia and on the third occasion (1944), it was recovered at Swarbourne.

In September 1938 Lance was described as “tall, handsome, iron grey hair, small military moustache, he is a man who might be taking the salute during a march past.”

World War II

In 1940 Lance was appointed as an independent Medical Visitor to ensure hygiene at Military Camps in WA. However, in July 1941 he enlisted and was on Home Service until August 1945. During this time Lance was president of the St Peters Old Collegiate Association in WA.

Post WWII

In 1945, having been released from Military Service Dr Lance Hayward resumed practice as a Physician at Shell House, St George's Terrace, Perth and in 1946 he moved his Consulting Rooms to the 5th Floor, Yorkshire Insurance Company Building, 194 St George's Terrace, Perth

Death

Lance died on the 15th of September 1964 aged 73, and his ashes were placed at the Karrakatta Cemetery, Perth. His wife died on 26th October 1968.
