

Lieut. Frederick Balfour McBryde

Played with Adelaide University

Football Club: Intervarsity 1911

Cricket Club: 1909/10 (B grade)

Degrees: LLB (1912), BA (1920)

Background

Coinciding with the Centenary of Anzacs our incentive behind the series of biographical publications is the Adelaide University Football and Cricket Club's desire to honour our players who served in the Great War (1914 - 1918). These brave men put on hold their academic, professional and sporting careers for King and Country in the name of peace and freedom. The AUFC/AUCC WW1 Memorial Committee is endeavouring to identify every one of our players who served and prepare life stories on all. This is to ensure their sacrifices and further contributions to society will be recognised by future generations.

On Anzac Day 2015, the Centenary of the Gallipoli landing, a memorial plaque was unveiled on the Adelaide University Oval Pavilion and this was followed by the erection of a picket fence between the pavilion and the scoreboard with each picket bearing a plaque with the name of an AUFC/AUCC player who served.

The following documentation relates to the life of Frederick Balfour McBryde. It is compilation of information and photographs collected from a variety of historical sources.

Biography

Early Life

Frederick Balfour McBryde was born Frederick Balfour Schultz, the son of Charles Augustus Schultz and his first wife Charlotte¹ Balfour in Melbourne (Victoria) on 12 May 1892.

Frederick's father was born and educated in Sydney; he was with the head office of A.M.P in Sydney (1877-1884) then transferred with the A.M.P. to Melbourne (sub accountant 1884-1894), New Zealand (accountant), and Melbourne (accountant) before being appointed resident secretary to South Australia from 1904 till his death in 1914. Frederick's mother passed away when the family was in New Zealand and Charles later remarried a Miss Biddle.

Schooling

Frederick was educated at Scotch College, Melbourne and at St Peter's College, Adelaide. He passed his Junior Public Examinations at St Peter's in 1905 and won the Form VA prize for Latin. In 1906 Frederick competed for St Peter's in the Inter-collegiate sports and passed his Senior Public Examinations. He passed his Higher Public Examinations in 1907 and 1908 and was on the general honours list in 1908. Frederick was a member of the Cadets while at both Colleges.

University

In 1909 Frederick commenced studying Law at Adelaide University. He attended the University Ball in 1912. His LLB was conferred in December 1912.

University Sport

Cricket

Frederick played cricket for the University in the 1909/10 season (B Grade).

Football

Frederick played football for Glenferrie in the Amateur League but was eligible to play for the University and represented the University at the 1911 Intervarsity.

Athletics

Frederick competed in the 1911 University Sports coming second in the 220 yards flat.

Early Career

Frederick was articled to Messrs Knox and Hargrave. While he graduated in 1912, Frederick had to wait until he turned 21 in 1913 to be admitted to the bar. In March 1913, Frederick joined the service as Third Associate to the Supreme Court. In August 1915 Frederick's uncle, Frederick Frank Schultz (who had succeeded Frederick's father as A.M.P. resident secretary to South Australia) changed his name by deed poll to Frederick Frank McBryde. By October 1915 Frederick and his stepmother had also changed their names to McBryde. Frederick applied to the court to have his name changed on the roll and to ensure he did not lose precedence due to his change of name.

In addition to playing football for Glenferrie, Frederick was a member of the Adelaide Rowing Club.

World War I

On the 10th of January 1916 Frederick enlisted as a private "C" Coy, 2nd Depot battalion. On joining up Frederick was described at 23 years 7 months, 5'9 ¾", with a medium complexion, grey eyes and dark hair. On the 16th of January Frederick was appointed a Corporal and on the 1st of February 1916 he was sent to N.C.O. School at the Mitcham Camp and was appointed as a Sergeant. After attending the school for officers at Duntroon, Frederick received his commission on 25th of July 1916 and was appointed as a 2nd Lieutenant, 50th Battalion, 9th Reinforcements.

On Thursday 9th of November 1916 Frederick married Natalie Lucas, elder daughter of the Hon. E. Lucas, M.L.C., Medindie at "Innisfall", and the residence of the bride's parents.

Frederick embarked from Adelaide, South Australia, on board HMAT A48 Seang Bee on 10th of February 1917. He was at the 13th Training Battalion, Codford and the Candahar School of Instruction before proceeding to France on 8th of August 1917. He was promoted to Lientenant1 March 1918. On the 5th of October 1918 he transferred to the Australian Corps Infantry School.

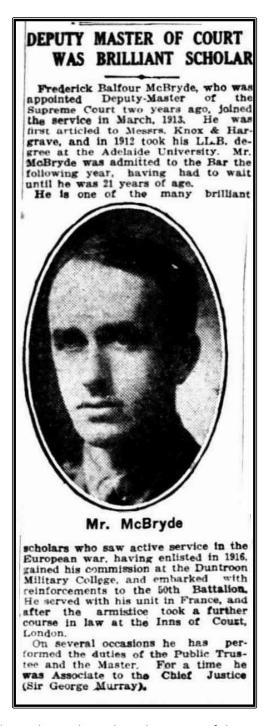

From the 14th of February to 24th of June 1919 he was granted leave for non-Military employment. During that time, he studied at the Council for Legal Education, Lincoln Inn Fields. He returned to Australia on "The Orsova" on 18th of July 1919. His appointment was terminated on 13th of November 1919.

After WWI

After the war Frederick resumed his duties at the Supreme Court as associate to the Chief Justice (Sir George Murray) and recommenced studying at Adelaide University receiving his BA in 1920.

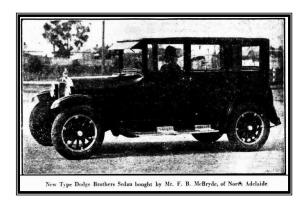

On the 12th of April 1920, Frederick and Natalie's son Lucas was born at Quambi, South Terrace. Tragically Natalie died on the 28th of May 1920, Natalie died aged 25, and she is buried at the North Road Cemetery, Nailsworth. The couple had been living at Kent Town.

Frederick played tennis and attended dances and balls and in August 1922 he was appointed an honorary magistrate. At various times, to cover periods of leave, Frederick was the Acting Public Trustee. In August 1923 Frederick was appointed Deputy Master of the Supreme Court.

In January 1924 Frederick purchased a Dodge and may have been one of the people who provided cars to take people to the Supreme Court picnic in March 1925. In January 1926 Frederick was awarded his Intermediate Certificate by the Federal Institute of Accountants.

The picture below (from June 1926) shows the new type of Dodge purchased by Frederick.

The pen portrait below was published in the News in January 1927.
