Background

Coinciding with the Centenary of Anzacs our incentive behind the series of biographical publications is the Adelaide University Football and Cricket Club's desire to honour our players who served in the Great War (1914 - 1918). These brave men put on hold their academic, professional and sporting careers for King and Country in the name of peace and freedom. The AUFC/AUCC WW1 Memorial Committee is endeavouring to identify every one of our players who served and prepare life stories on all. This is to ensure their sacrifices and further contributions to society will be recognised by future generations.

On Anzac Day 2015, the Centenary of the Gallipoli landing, a memorial plaque was unveiled on the Adelaide University Oval Pavilion and this was followed by the erection of a picket fence between the pavilion and the scoreboard with each picket bearing a plaque with the name of an AUFC/AUCC player who served.

The following documentation relates to the life of Charles Samuel Mugford. It is compilation of information and photographs collected from a variety of historical sources.

Biography

Early Life

Charles Samuel Mugford was born on the 24th of September 1893, the first child of Samuel Clark Mugford and Clara Jane Suckling at Gladstone, SA. Charles' father was a Methodist Minister.

Reverend Samuel Clark and Clara Jane Mugford

Samuel and Clara had fourteen children, seven sons and seven daughters, they were 1893 Charles Samuel, 1895 Winifred Mary, 1896 Keith Alan, 1898 Clara Etty Maud, 1899 Frank Kenneth, 1901 Edith Marjory, 1903 Lancelot Suckling, 1905 Kathleen Gwen, 1907 Constance Jean, 1909 Mavis Lillian, 1911 Gordon Norman Clark, 1914 Eric Kenwyn, 1914 Rex Ernest, 1916 Dorothy Joyce

Charles' mother, Clara Suckling, was one of the earliest scholars at the Sturt Street School in Adelaide and eight of her children would also attend the school. Six of Clara's sons became teachers and the other son, Frank, became a doctor. Charles would become a teacher at the Sturt Street School prior to WWI and his brother Lance was in his ninth year as a demonstration teacher at the school in 1933.

Schooling

Charles' early schooling was probably conducted at a number of schools as his father moved frequently to undertake his role as a Minister.

In 1905 Charles was at the Sturt Street School and from 1907-09 he was at Prince Alfred College. He passed his Primary Examinations in 1907 and his junior Examinations in 1908. Charles competed in the Senior Obstacle Race at the PAC Sports in August. 1909.

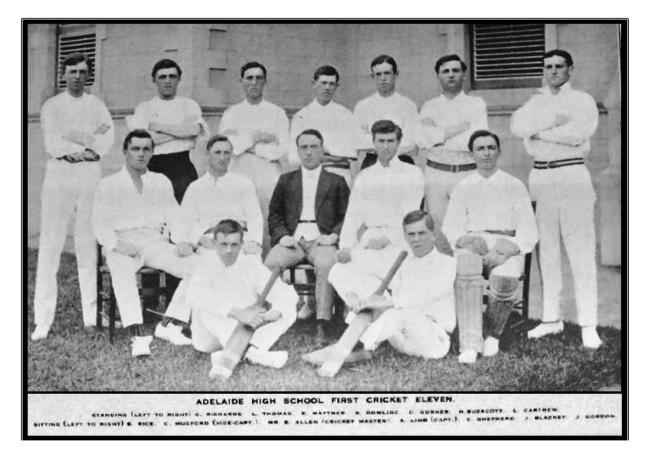

Charles passed his Senior Examinations in 1909 but the newspaper article giving the results did not list the school. A later entry in the Adelaide High School Magazine states that Charles was at AHS from 1909-1911, so he may have moved to AHS for the final term of 1909. Charles passed further Senior Examinations in December 1910 and 1911 (gaining Honours in Arithmetic and Algebra in 1911). Charles passed School of Arts/Education Department examinations in June 1911 and August 1912.

The move to Adelaide High School (formally The Pupil Teacher School prior to 1908) was an indication of Charles' desire to become a teacher. Adelaide High School was where promising students gained some teaching experience while also completing their secondary education. The best would then go on to the Teachers Training College.

Charles was a member of the AHS Football First Eighteen (1910 & 1911) and Cricket First Eleven (1911).

The Reverend Samuel Clark Mugford was the Methodist Minister at Goodwood from 1907 until the Autumn of 1911. He was then transferred to Gawler West. Charles had played cricket for the church team, presumably when not playing with the Adelaide High School team. His future brother-in-law Ralph Neate who he knew from Sturt Street School also played for the church team.

Younger Sister Edith had an unfortunate accident in August 1912 falling from a railway bridge and fracturing her hip.

Education Department Appointments

Charles was appointed as a junior teacher to the Sturt Street School in 1912 and by January 1913 he had completed his Monitors Examinations. In January 1914, Charles was appointed as an Assistant Teacher to Hindmarsh School and later in August 1914, Charles was transferred as an Assistant Teacher at Gawler.

Teachers Training College and University of Adelaide

Charles was sent to Teachers Training College in 1913 and passed the Adelaide University subject, 'Education'. He was also enrolled that the University in 1914 but did not complete any subjects. It was the policy of the Education Department to select the most promising junior teachers who had completed four years (3 years at Adelaide High School and 1 year of Practical Teaching at a school) and send them to the Teacher Training College for a one-year course where they would complete professional subjects, do more practical teaching and have limited access to University of Adelaide subjects.

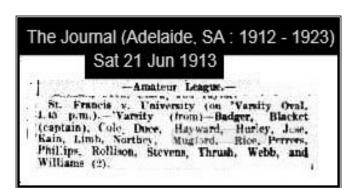

The Education Department had in 1907 taken control of teacher training away from the Adelaide University. Under this scheme, student teachers paid no fees, received a small allowance and in an arrangement with Adelaide University, had still some limited access to take University subjects relevant to Teaching such as Education and Psychology. On completion of their total of five years of teacher training they were bonded to the Education Department for several years with the majority having to serve time in country schools.

University Sport

In 1913 Charles played in the SACA B Grade Cricket team for University at the end of the 1912/13 season. That seemed to be the only outing with University as he was back playing with Goodwood Methodist the following season.

In the winter he played football for University in the Amateur League. He also represented the PAC Old Boys in the Past v Present football match in July 1913.

World War I

On the 3rd of June 1915 Charles enlisted. He was 21 years and 8 months old, 5'4", 123 lbs, with a fair complexion, blue eyes and very fair hair (SN 2913). On the 21st of September 1915, Charles embarked from Adelaide and arrived in Mudros, on the island of Lemnos on 29th of November 1915. The 10th Battalion had been decimated at Gallipoli and evacuated to Lemnos. Charles was a member of the 10th Battalion, 9th Reinforcements. From there he embarked on the 'Seaug Bee' arriving in Alexandria, Egypt on 25th of December 1915 and was taken on strength with the 10th Battalion. After service in Egypt, which would have primarily been 3 months of training, Charles left Alexandria on 27th March 1916 and arrived in Marseilles, France on the 3rd of April 1916.

In September 1916 Charles was ill with influenza and was sent to hospital in Boulogne. He returned to the field at Etaples and was taken on strength with the 32nd Battalion. In November 1916, Charles was again hospitalised, this time with Trench Feet, a common affliction in the wet conditions. He was returned to the UK and was in hospital at Taplow, Buckinghamshire. After recovering and a period of furlough, Charles transferred to the 70th Battalion on the 23rd of March 1917. He remained in the UK for a time, possibly for training and on 23rd September 1917, he was appointed Lance Corporal. On the 10th of October 1917, Charles arrived back in France.

From the 7th of December 1917 to 17th of January 1918 Charles was at the Instructional School and from 23rd of April 1918 to 27th of July 1918, Charles was on detachment to the 3rd Australian Infantry Brigade Headquarters. He was again detached to Brigade Headquarters from 28 September 1918. Charles returned to England in December 1918 and he was promoted to Corporal in January. On 16th of July 1919, Charles returned to Australia on the 'Durham' departing from Liverpool, he was discharged on the 9th of September 1919.

He was also involved in organising fundraising through school fetes. He arranged end of year concerts, Arbor Days, and encouraged children to improve their prospects by taking up remunerative hobbies.

RENMARK WEST SCHOOL

Renmark West, July 21.

An interesting working bee, consisting of seeral gentlemen whose children attend the local school, assisted by the head teacher, Mr. C. S. Mugford, made a start on the cementing of the floor in the new shelter shed last Saturday. Quite a big portion was completed. When finished it will look very well.

Arrangements are well in hand for the school bazaar after August vacation.

Some very fine vegetables are the result of the special fertilisers used by the gardening oys under the direction of Mr. D. Dempster.

The senior girls under Miss Oakley's tuition, are following out a course in Eurythmic exercises, which when accompanied by the plane are very pleasing as well as helpful to the growing girl.

At Clare, Charles was involved in organising the Clare and District Schools' Exhibition in 1929. In August 1929 the people of Clare gave a public farewell to Charles and JHK Phillips (the article below has been edited to focus on Charles's portion of the farewell).

FAREWELLS AT CLARE TO MR. J. H. K. PHILLIPS AND MR. C. S. MUGFORD.

Mr. J. H. K. Phillips and Mr. C. S. Mugford being about to leave Clare for Moonta and Wallaroo respectively it was decided that they should be given a public farewell together. This took place on Friday evening of last week, and a large number attended.

Mr. Phillips has been manager of he Clare Branch of the S.A. Savings Bank for the past four years, and he seeing transferred to the charge of the Moonta branch. Mr. Mugford has been head-master at the Clare Public School for two and a half years, and will now take charge of he Wallaroo Public School.

The Mayor of Clare (Mr. J. Bails, J.P.) presided, and said they had met to bid farewell to Mr. Philips and Mr. Mugford. The Rev. H. F. Lyons, speaking for the Methodist Church and Sunday School, said they were not pleased to say farewell, and congratulated both gentlemen on their promotion, which was the road to further success. The Methodist Church was suffering a big loss in Mr. Mugford's departure. His place as Sunday-School superintendent would be missed.

He regretted their departure also that of Mrs. Mugford and Mrs. Phillips, who were helpers in the Ladies' Guild, and he wished them all happiness in their new homes.

Mr. G. V. Tilbrook spoke on behalf of the cricket club, referring to the keen interest and enthusiasm Mr. Mugford had shown in the game. He congratulated both gentlemen upon their promotion.

The Mayor presented each with a portfolio of pictures of Back-to-Clare, which he hoped would always remind them of their associations with Clare and its people.

At Wallaroo, Charles organised Visiting Days and School Concerts. His active involvement in the community is best described by the farewells given to the family by the School, RSA, the Methodist Church and the Cricket Club.

Charles was at Pennington for Arbor Day in July 1935 and he thanked the Woodville Council for supplying trees for the students to plant. He remained at the school until October 1937. A farewell social was held to mark his transfer.

Shortly after his arrival at Mt Gambier, Charles was involved in a two week teacher's refresher course. During his term as headmaster at Mount Gambier Primary, the school had two visits from the SA Governor. The first visit was by Governor and Lady Dugan in June 1938 and the second by Governor and Lady Muriel Barclay-Harvey in November 1939. The School also celebrated Arbor Day and in April 1939 Rotarians visited the School during Youth Week. Charles remained at the school until December 1939. # IMPRESSED WITH SCHOOL

New Pirie Headmaster Begins Duty

MR. C. S. Mugford, who yesterday began duty as headmaster of Pirie School, had visited Pirie previously, as a member of Wallaroo Methodist Choir, to take part in musical competitions.

He stated that he had received a favor-able impression of the school and pupils nd was delighted with the library.

Mr. Mugford said that he came from Colonel Light Gardens School. It was a coincidence that Mr. W. S. Coombe and Mr. W. R. G. Sharp, who had preceded him in Pirie, also came from Colonel Light Gardens. If, he added, he had con-sulted departmental records he would have realised months ago that he would probably succeed Mr. Sharp here.

In a resume of his experience in charge of schools Mr. Mugford said that he had been at Pennington, Mount Gambier, Wallaroo, and Colonel Light Gar-dens. He spent nearly six years at Wal-laroo and while stationed there made his first trip to Pirie.

Likes Music And Cricket

He came here as a member of Walla-roo Methodist Choir to take part in musical competition and had enjoyed the experience. While on Yorke Peninsula, he said, he played cricket every season. The peninsula he had found a home of cricket.

This is the first season he has not played, and the only reason is that he regards himself as in the veteran stage. He retains a deep interest in the game, and it was with pleasure that he found Mr. E. W. Golding (one of his teachers) was president of Pirie District Associa-

Pirie School, continued Mr. Mugford, was well equipped, but it needed reno-vation. He knew of the persistent efforts of the school committee to have it kept in order and of the improvements due to its persistence.

The school library had delighted him. It was one of the aids to education to which he attached importance and he desired a room and equipment for it.

Well-Conducted Children

Regarding the children attending the school, Mr. Mugford was enthusiastic. He said that they were well dressed and well conducted.

He expected to be happy in Pirie for he knew of the friendliness for which the North was noted. He had heard just the opposite characteristic attributed to the South, but that was not his opinion for he had had four pleasant years at Mount Gambier.

Mount Gambier.

Mr. and Mrs. Mugford have five children. The eldest son has been left in Adelaide, where he is employed in the Savings Bank. The others, three of whom are boys and one a girl, have come to Pirie. One is attending the high each sale and the three others are at the school and the three others are at the primary school.

The family is living in what is known as the departmental residence, the house at Risdon Park which had been occupied by Mr. Sharp.

MR. MUGFORD SAYS FAREWELL

Popular Head of Pirie School Going To Adelaide

One of the most popular headmas-ters of Piric School to pass on from here in many years, Mr. G. S. Murford said forewell to his staff and scholars esterday afternoon at the break-up terminal holidays. for the tle will beave at the week-end to take over the new charge at Westbourne Park School, Adelaide, and takes with this the goodwill of all connected with the school and more than one town organisation.

To the children assembled in the grounds Mr. Mugford left his farewell message. He thanked them for their message. He thanked them ex-loyalty and the many little courtesies he had experienced during his four verses and one month here. The staff years and one month here. The staff had been everything that a staff should be, and no matter where he went in the course of his duty he would never wish to work with such a fine body of children and colleagues.

On behalf of the whole school per-sonnel Mr. D. J. Prick (chief assis-tant) made a presentation of a wallet of notes to the departing headmaster. who was given three ringing cheers as he stepped down.

PLANS UNFINISHED

Interviewed, Mr. Mugford said that he was genuinely sorry to leave Pirlo and its people, for he had enjoyed every day of his stay here. "I have been here four years and one month," he said, "and would have been quite content to stay here had not the present opportunity come along." sent opportunity come along. lieve that my term is a length record for the better part of 20 years. "I had many plans for the betterment of the school and its grounds, and I am regretful that I shall not be here to see them brought to fruition. The school committee has been able to accomplish much, and it has done a wonderful Job.

"Pirie has suited me, and you may rest assured that I shall boost the old town wherever I go.'

TRIBUTE FROM CHURCHES

At the close of the religious in-struction period at the school mem-bers of Pirie Ministers' Fraternal assembled in the headmaster's office to bid him farewell. At the request of Rev. D. W. Annear Rev. L. W. Brook asked Mr. Mugford to accept the fraternal's gratitude for his sympathetic attitude and courtesy toward the clergymen who had visited the school regularly. # Cricket

After playing cricket during his student years, then from 1920 to 1940, Charles was also a valued member of many local cricket teams. On his first appointment to Mt Gambier, he played for Yahl, he bowled effective left-hand breaks and took 7 for 26 in a match against Mt Gambier. At Mintaro, he was selected to play in a Mid North Association match against Kapunda. In the Summer of 1928, in addition to regular season matches for Clare, Charles played for the 'Returned Soldiers' team as part of the ANZAC Day commemorations.

The senior team's averages were read by Mr M. Bidstrup. Mr Probert gave a resume of the club's financial activities during the past season, and Mr C. Tonkin, on behalf of the club, said a few words of farewell to Mr C. S. Mugford, the captain of the team, who is leaving the district. On Wednesday afternoon, in the parish hall, the Mothers' Club and the School Committee arranged a farewell gathering in honor of Mr and Mrs C. S. Mugford. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and greenery. A program contributed to by Mrs V. Bowen (overture), Mrs and Miss Smith (duet), Mrs Knuckey and Miss Lethbridge and Banks (recitals) together with a competition won by Mrs Hannan (tearing out a paper elephant) made the afternoon quite enjoyable. Prior to a dainty afternoon tea, Rev. R. Woodger (chairman of School Committee) presented Mr and Mrs Mugford with a beautiful travelling rug, and expressed the regret of all at their departure from the Wallaroo school. Mr Mugford, in responding, thanked all for their gift, and referred to the happy relationship ever existing between them and the community. The gathering closed with Auld Lang Sync.

A POPULAR CAPTAIN.

"Old Cricketer" writes:—May I be permitted to add my word of farewell to the many which have been said to the captain of our Y.P.C.A. cricket team, Mr C. S. Mugford, on his departure from Wallaroo, and to wish him success in his new appointment. I am indebted to our friend "Sponny" for the following figures of Mr Mugford's cricket during his six seasons with the team. He made his first appearance against Woodlands in 1929, and since then he has rarely missed a match. He has captained the team for four seasons, and has twice led them as far as the challenge game; but has never been fortunate enough to be on the winning side. Whilst his personal success has perhaps not been them as far as the challenge game; but has never been fortunate enough to be on the winning side. Whilst his personal success has perhaps not been commensurate with his skill, he has, as his figures will show, proved a valuable member of the team. In batting he has played 66 innings, 10 not outs, for 810 runs, average 14.46; and has taken 126 wickets at an average of 16.52; the number of wickets being greater than those taken by any other bowler in the team over a similar period. Like most of his contemporaries, he suffered at times at the hands of his fieldsmen, but always played the game in the best possible spirit, and never complained or "growled" at the unfortunate "butterfingers," neither did he ever show resentment at an umpire's decision. Quiet and unassuming in his personality, he was always quick to congratuate a victorious opennent area. Quiet and unassuming in his personality, he was always quick to congratulate a victorious opponent, generous in conceding any point which might arise in argument, and (a valuable asset this) always punctual in attendance at matches, whilst his luck in winning the toss was more than average. Long may it continue. Blessed with a large amount of enthusiasm for the game. amount of enthusiasm for the game, Mr Mugford will no doubt next season on the first and perhaps show some budding Grimmett that he still has the ability to "score a few." Let us hope

On his second placement at Mt Gambier Charles played for the Kookaburras and by October 1938 his son David was playing in the same team.

When the family left Mt Gambier in early 1940 it was a great loss to local cricket. Charles' performances were detailed in a newspaper article (below). Charles had turned 46 in September 1939. This may have been the end of Charles' cricket career as he said in April 1941 that he did not play in the 1940/41 season. At Port Pirie, Charles took up golf.

CRICKET NOTES.

By "Short Slip"

My notes this week open with a note of sadness for to those of us who knew him, the passing of our old friend and cricket comrade Charlie Mugford, has left a feeling of loss, "Charlie" as many of his fellow-players called him, was a delightful companion on the cricket field and to have him in the side always assured one of a pleasant day's cricket if not always a successful one. In other walks of life also showed the he friendly and kindly spirit and his passing leaves us with many happy memories of days in the sun. During his six seasons with the Wallaroo club he played 54 innings for 652 and with a highest score of 55 and 7 not outs, average 13.87. His slow left arm arm bowling always dangerous, and accurate, accounted for 112 wickets at a cost of 17.22 runs each. As a captain he always got the best from his colleagues and had their goodwill at all times. Hail and farewell old friend, it mattered not, did you win or lose, you always "played the game."
