Background

Coinciding with the Centenary of Anzacs our incentive behind the series of biographical publications is the Adelaide University Football and Cricket Club's desire to honour our players who served in the Great War (1914 - 1918). These brave men put on hold their academic, professional and sporting careers for King and Country in the name of peace and freedom. The AUFC/AUCC WW1 Memorial Committee is endeavouring to identify every one of our players who served and prepare life stories on all. This is to ensure their sacrifices and further contributions to society will be recognised by future generations.

On Anzac Day 2015, the Centenary of the Gallipoli landing, a memorial plaque was unveiled on the Adelaide University Oval Pavilion and this was followed by the erection of a picket fence between the pavilion and the scoreboard with each picket bearing a plaque with the name of an AUFC/AUCC player who served.

The following documentation relates to the life of Henry Mortimer Muirhead. It is compilation of information and photographs collected from a variety of historical sources.

Early Career and Interests

Henry was admitted to the Bar in May 1909. He became managing clerk to Messrs. McLachlan and Napier. Two years later he was appointed clerk of arraigns and third associate at the Supreme Court. He was appointed Registrar of the Court of Industrial Appeals and on the constitution of the Industrial Court in 1913 he became Industrial Registrar. He held that position until he enlisted in August 1917.

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments were made by the Executive Council on Thursday:—
 Mr. N. W. Jolly, B.A., B.Sc. (instructor in forestry), to be also Assistant Conservator of Forests; Senior-Constable J. M. B. Marshall to be clerk and bailiff of the Local Court of Kingston, vice Wells, resigned; and a commissioner for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court so long as he remains clerk of the Local Court; Mr. Henry M. Muirhead (third associate and clerk of arraigns) to be also registrar of the Court of Industrial Appeals, vice Campbell, resigned.

ARBITRATION COURT.

In Executive Council on Thursday Mr. H. M. Muirhead (associate and clerk of arraigns at the Supreme Court, and registrar of the Court of Industrial Appeals) was appointed to be industrial registrar, under the Industrial Arbitration Act, 1912.

Henry continued his interest in rowing and rowed with the Adelaide Rowing Club after leaving University. He acted as an official at the Inter-collegiate, Intervarsity and SA Rowing Association rowing competitions. In 1914 -15, Henry was a vice-captain of the Adelaide Rowing Club and from 1915-17, he was the Captain of the Club. In January 1913 Henry competed in the Adelaide Rowing Club annual swimming races. His enlistment record also indicated that he was a member of the Law Rifle Club.

In February 1914 Henry became engaged to Kathleen Isabel Butler, the fourth daughter of Sir Richard Butler of Medindie, the former Premier of South Australia, however the engagement was broken, as Kathleen (born 1891) would later marry Richard Francis HOCKEY in 1918.

World War I

In October 1916 Henry was appointed a temporary Lieutenant in the 80th (Gawler) Infantry and he enlisted as a Private in the 10th Battalion, AIF on the 6th of Aug 1917. He was 32 years of age, 5' 11", 193 lbs, with a fresh complexion, grey eyes and dark brown hair. He was 'entrained' on the 27th of October 1917 to Melbourne for embarkation. He embarked from Melbourne onboard the H.M.A.T. A60 Aeneas and was acting Sergeant for the voyage only. He was taken on the strength 10th Battalion as a Private on 27th of November 1917. Henry landed at the Port of Le Havre, France on 1st of April 1918. He had periods as an Acting Corporal and Temporary Corporal. Henry was ill with influenza in June and July 1918 and was in hospital in France and England, however he returned to France on the 30th of October 1918. He returned to Australia on the vessel City of Poona while again acting as a Sergeant on the voyage only. He reverted to a Private on his return to Australia and was discharged on the 5th of June 1919.

Mr L. H. Haslam Comes to Adelaide.

The increase of work in the Adelaide Police Court and the appointment of Dr. T. Hewitson as Deputy-President of the Industrial Court has necessitated the appointment of a new magistrate in Adelaide.

The Executive Council on Thursday appointed Mr. Henry Mortimer Muirhead (Registrar of the State Industrial Court) to be a special magistrate for the State of South Australia and to be a special magistrate in the country Local Courts and Courts of Insolvency Department, Mount Gambier, in place of Mr. L. H. Haslam, S.M. The latter gentleman has been appointed a special and stipendiary magistrate in the Adelaide Police Court.

Mr. Muirhead was born at Glenelg in 1885. His father, Mr. C. M. Muirhead, who a few years ago was compelled by ill-health to relinquish his practice, was for many years a prominent solicitor in Adelaide. Mr. Muirhead was educated at St. Peter's College, and entered the Adelaide University in 1904. He served his articles partly with Messrs. C. M. and J. B. Muirhead, and partly with Messrs. Murray, Hayward, and Magarey. On his admission to the Bar in April, 1909, he became managing clerk to Messrs. McLachlan and Napier, and remained with that firm for approximately two years. In March, 1911, he was appointed Clerk of Arraigns, and Third Associate at the Supreme Court. There he was attached to Mr. Justice Homburg until his Honor's death in the following year, when he was transferred to Mr. Justice Buchanan, with whom he remained associated until 1916. Mr. Muirhead for 12 years has been prominent in the realm of industrial arbitration. In 1911 he was appointed Registrar of the Court of Industrial Appeals, and on the constitution of the Industrial Court in 1913 he became Industrial Registrar, and has since served continuously in that capacity. Mr. Muirhead enlisted in the A.I.F. in 1917, and was on active service for approximately two years. He served in France and Belgium in the ranks of the 10th Battalion.

Mr. Muirhead in his younger days took an interest in athletics. He played for the first eighteen for four years against P.A.C., and he rowed for four years in the first four. He represented the Adelaide University for three years in inter-University football, and rowed three times in the inter-University boat race. He was captain in succession of the St. Peter's College boats, the A.U.B.C., and the Adelaide Rowing Club.

In November 1926 Henry was appointed S.M. to the No 2 Police Court in Adelaide. In addition, Henry also acted as the SA Coroner. In December 1933 Henry was appointed Police Magistrate (P.M.), succeeding Mr E.M. Sabine who had reached retirement age.

Henry was a recipient of the Coronation Medals in May 1937. His salary in December 1937 was £1,021 7/3 p.a. and it had grown to £1,031 17/6 p.a. by December 1939.

Retiring

TODAY'S PICTURE of the Police Magistrate (Mr. H. M. Muirhead), who retires today.

Last time on Bench

Although he sat on the Bench for the last time on Wednesday, the retiring Police Magistrate (Mr. H. M. Muirhead) took the Bench this afternoon for a farewell by members of the legal profession.

Mr. Muirhead, nicknamed "Bonnie" by those associated with the courts, actually retires on July 31. Today he leaves the Police Court to begin recreation leave.

He has been associated with the judiciary since he was appointed associate clerk of arraigns in 1911.

Mr. Muirhead was made industrial registrar in 1913.

He became a special magistrate in the country local courts department in 1923, and was made a special magistrate of Adelaide Police Court in 1926.

He was appointed Police Magistrate in charge of the Adelaide Police Court Department in 1934.

From 'Memoirs of a Barrister' by Jack Elliott -

'... in the Police Court under the benign rule of Police Magistrate H.M. Muirhead, described by some as a 'good reasonable doubter' and respected by all for his courtesy, humanity and profound knowledge of the criminal law and procedure. He was affectionately known as 'Bonny'.'

Family

On the 29th of December 1923, Henry Mortimer Muirhead, of 6 Arthur St, Medindie, Walkerville, married Kate Sarah Agnes, the fifth daughter of Sir Richard Butler. Born in 1893, Kate was the younger sister of Henry's former fiancé. Their only child, a son, James Henry Muirhead, was born at Quambi, South Terrace, Adelaide. Sadly, only days later, Kate's father passed away while travelling in England.

The family enjoyed holidays at Victor Harbor, Grange and Glenelg. Tragically, in November 1932, Henry's brother (Dr John R Muirhead) died aged only 48. In October 1936 the family were still living at 6 Arthur St, Medindie. Henry's father died in September 1938.

Son James (Jim) was educated at St Peters and gained his LLB from Adelaide University in 1949. He married Margaret Hamilton Fayne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frayne of Prospect on the 4th of February 1950. Their daughter Janet was born in 1951 and they later had three sons.

Death

Henry Mortimer Muirhead died on the 2nd of September 1951, aged 66 and was buried privately, his wife Kate died in 1968, aged 75.

Mr. H. Muirhead Retired Police Magistrate, Dies

Mr. Henry Mortimer Muirhead, former Police Magistrate, died at his home in Arthur street, Medindie, late yesterday afternoon. He was 66.

Mr. Muirhead, who retired as Police Magistrate and head of the Adelaide Police Court Department in July last year, had been in the Government service since March, 1911, when he was appointed associate clerk of arraigns.

He was made industrial registrar in 1913, and became a special magistrate in the country local courts department in 1923. He was made a special magistrate of the Adelaide Police Court in 1926.

In 1934 Mr. Muirhead was appointed Police Magistrate.

He enlisted in the AIF in 1917 and served with the 10th Battalion in France and Belgium.

Mr. Muirhead's father was a solicitor, and his son, Mr. J. H. Muirhead, of Grassmere, is also following the law.

His widow was a daughter of the late Sir Richard Butler.

Mr. Muirhead will be buried privately today.

Courts adjourn as tribute

As a mark of respect to the late Mr. H. M. Muirhead, former Adelaide Police Magistrate, who died yesterday, all courts at Adelaide Police Court today adjourned for half an hour.

Mr. Clarke, PM, said Mr. Muirhead, during his 16 years as police magistrate, had carried out his duties with distinction.

He had possessed the two qualities — patience and a sense of humanity — so important to the duties of a magistrate.

Speaking for the Police Department, the police prosecutor (Inspector O'Sullivan) said Mr. Muirhead had shown a sound knowledge of the law, a kindly disposition, and a sympathetic understanding of the frailties of human nature.

Mr. J. R. Alderman expressed sympathy on behalf of the legal profession.
