

41 Testify On £4200 Tile Deals

GEORGE WILLS

... sent for trial over tile deals.

Forty-one home builders who are alleged to have lost an aggregate of more than £4000 in bogus tile deals queued up at Central Court last week to testify against George James Norbert Wynyard Wills (37), roof tiler, of 19 Orchard St., West Ryde.

Tall, good-looking Wills, who walked with a limp as the result of a war wound, was committed for trial by Mr. Harris, C.S.M., on 44 charges of having stolen from his clients, who included several women.

Detective William G.

Detective William G. Clyne, of the C.I.B. Company Squad, in evidence, said that Wills had told him he had used the money for gambling.

Wills, said the detective, had admitted taking deposits from 44 people with the promise that he would get tiles from Wunderlich Ltd., where he had been employed as a casual fixer, and Clay Products Ltd.
