NOTES

- (a) Each member of the Military Forces and the A.A.N.S. must make a will on the prescribed form unless he or she already has a valid one in existence, in which case the relevant certificate on the form of will must be rendered. See A.I.F. Standing Orders, Australian Imperial Force 1940, para. 89, and Standing Orders for Mobilization 1924, para. 37 (e).
- (b) When a member is in actual military service (that is when a state of war exists and the member has taken some step towards joining the field forces)—
 - (i) he may, whether over or under the age of 21 years, dispose of all his property (including land) by will;
 - (ii) such will need not be witnessed, except where there is a disposition of land situated in South Australia;
 - (iii) alterations made before signing a will should be initialled by the member making the will and the witnesses (if any). If it is desired to alter a will which has been signed a new will must be made and the instructions contained in these Notes followed.
- (c)
 - (i) a witness to a will must not be a beneficiary or the husband or wife of a beneficiary;
 - (ii) any person whether mentioned as a beneficiary in the will or not can be appointed an executor of a will. The duty of the executor when probate is granted by the Court is to distribute the property of a deceased member in accordance with the instructions given in the will;
 - (iii) should the member desire to leave his or her property to one person the following can be written in the appropriate place "I give all my property to _____"
and if the member desires to leave a legacy as well, the following words can be used "I give £ _____ to _____ and the remainder of my property to _____"
 - (iv) normally a will is revoked by marriage and hence a member who marries after making his or her will is required to make a new will. Note, however, that where a member, whose permanent home is in N.S.W., Victoria or Tasmania, has made a valid will which sets out that it is made in contemplation of marriage to a named person and the member marries that person, such marriage will not revoke the will.
- (d) Free legal advice and services are available to members of the Military Forces through the Law Institutes in all capital cities. For addresses of such Institutes see paragraph 5 of M.B.I. A92 of 1941.
