	29th. Battalion. A.I.F.	4330	Corporal Francis James MACK.	At SAILLY-la-SEC. During period in the line from 21st. April, to 21st. May, 1918, this N.C.C. has been constantly on patrol as leader of the "point". On the night of 9/10th. May when working in conjunction with a large patrol he skillfully and bravely reconnoitred the country to an enemy strong point until halted by the enemy. In spite of being immediately subjected to constant sniping he acted with great coolness and courage, and at once proceeded to the leader of the patrol with the information he had obtained. The above is typical of his conduct throughout the tour of duty in the line, and at all times he has proved himself to be cool, daring and resourceful, thereby setting an excellent example to the remainder of the patrol.	Adjutant-General. C.O. 29th. Battalion.	mention in despatches.
