

3rd Aust. Infantry

1st Australian

1st Anzac

7th October, 1917.

10th Battalion 6128a
A.I.F.

Corporal Sydney
Carl RIGNEY.

During the operations at POLYGON WOOD, east of YPRES on 19/22nd Sept., 1917, Opl. RIGNEY displayed great resourcefulness in leading his men through the barrage and when held up by a Machine Gun in a Strong Point he worked his Section round to the flank and captured the gun killing all the garrison. Later he salvaged a Lewis Gun, the team of which had become casualties and moving forward of the line established a post inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy in the neighbourhood of the BUZZE.

10th Battalion 2700
A.I.F.

Sergeant Charles
Allen WILLIAMS.

During the operations at POLYGON WOOD east of YPRES on 19/22nd Sept., 1917, Sgt. WILLIAMS rendered inestimable service. Throughout the whole action he showed conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty. It was he, who, after his platoon commander had been hit, reorganised the platoon and thus enabled it to go forward as an organised body. During the enemy barrage he went about in the open directing the men to dig in and showing stretcher bearers where wounded lay, all the time being exposed to heavy enemy shell fire and showing an absolute disregard for same.
