ROLL OF HONOUR

HOPP – In loving memory of my dear son, also brother and brother-in-law, Private Louis Hopp, 42nd Battalion, died of wounds, 23rd January, 1918.

Silently a mother weeping,
Death has claimed her darling only son;
No one on earth can fill his place;
He died a hero, loved by all,
And proudly we will cherish, Lou,
Your photo on the wall,
Though you are far away, dear brother,
From those who loved you well,
Never to return again,
Just a year ago to-day.

ROLL OF HONOUR

HOPP – In loving memory of my dear and only son, Pte Louis Hopp, who died of wounds, Chelmsford, England, 23rd January, 1918.

He suffered pain, he bore it well,
But what he suffered none can tell;
Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
Life's troubles ended, his suffering past.

Inserted by his loving mother.

ROLL OF HONOUR

HOPP – In loving memory of my dear son, Private Louis Hopp, who died of wounds received at Passhendale, January 23, 1918.

The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day;
But never will the one I love
From memory fade away.

Inserted by his loving mother, E. Hopp.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Private L. Hopp does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
