Private
Albert
HOLLINGWORTH.

On 12th October 1917. Next of YPRMS, he displayed conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in action. This soldier was employed as a Runner between Battalion Headquarters and the front line, and did exceedingly good work carrying messages during most severe bombardment. On his return journey from the front line, he used to assist in carrying back wounded. His courage and cheerfulness in danger were an inspiration to others.
