IN MEMORIAM.
Died on Active Service.
1917. I.E.—In loving memory of our dear and brother, Pte. E. F. Sproule, who died of wounds, somewhere in France,
October 5, 1917.
When called him, he was there,
To do his bit and take his share;
His heart was good, his spirit brave,
His resting place a soldier's grave.
No mother was there to soothe his brow,
No father to say good-bye;
No brother or sister to take his hand
When death was drawing nigh.
Inserted by his loving father, mother,
and brothers; also brother (on Active Service).

IN MEMORIAM.
1917. S.—In fond and loving memory of our dear mother, who passed away on October 11, 1917.
Gone, but not forgotten.
Inserted by her loving son Frank.
1917. S.—In memory of the late Mrs. Eliza
Anders, died October 11, 1917.
In the early morn, when all was still,
God gave His great command;
In silent sleep she passed away
Into a better land.
Not lost, but gone before.
Inserted by her loving son and daughter-in-law, Dominick and Florence Anders, Caswell.

1914. TREBILCOCK.—In sad but ever loving memory of my dear husband and our dear father, Thomas Henry Trebilcock, who departed this life on October 11, 1914.
The shock was great, the blow severe,
The little thought your death so near;
Only those who have lost are able to tell
The pain at heart at not saying farewell.
Inserted by his loving wife and family.

1914. TREBILCOCK.—In sad but ever loving memory of our dear father, who died at Hobart, October 11, 1914.
No one knows how much we miss him,
There is such a vacant place;
For it is when we go to visit home
That is the time we miss him there.
