DEATHS.

DUNCAN.—Killed in action, France, on the 17th April, Private W. B. Duncan (Wally), stretcher-bearer A.M.C., loved son of M. E. and W. F. Duncan, loving brother of Elsie, Nellie, Hilda, Winnie, Ethel, Muriel, Thelma and Douglas; aged 20 years 3 months. After 3 years' active service in Egypt, Gallipoli and France.
"Only a boy, but he has done a man's part."

IN MEMORIAM.

ANDERSON.—In sad and loving memory of our dear son and brother, Harold, who died at Geelong 4th May, 1917.

Some time, some day, our eyes shall see
The dear face we hold in memory;
But Christ shall link the broken chain
Still closer when we meet again.

—Inserted by his loving mother, brothers and sisters.

PLANT.—In loving memory of my dear brother, Trooper Jack Plant, killed in action at Bullecourt 3rd May, 1917.

I pictured your safe return, dear Jack,
I longed for the clasp of your hand,
But God has postponed our meeting,
It will be in the better land.

—Inserted by his loving sister, Olive Anderson.

SUTTON.—In loving memory of my dear husband, Sergt. Ernest S. V. Sutton, late of 22nd Battalion, killed in action at Bullecourt, France, May 3rd, 1917; aged 26 years.

"Gone west" with the glory of the setting sun,

To the endless day of a well-earned rest,
Another true hero's part is done,
Another brave soul "gone west."

One of Australia's many heroes, but our only one.

—Inserted by his sorrowing wife, D. K. Sutton, Geelong.

Sutton, Geelong.

SUTTON.—In fond memory of Sergt. Ernest S. V. Sutton, 1108, 22nd Batt., only child of Louisa and the late F. D. Sutton. Killed in action at Bullecourt on May 3rd, 1917; aged 26 years.

"When peace dawns over the countryside,
Our thanks shall be to the men who died,
Oh, quiet hearts, can you hear us tell
How peace was won by the men who fell?"

"God's will be done."

—Inserted by mother, aunts and uncles, "Retlaw," Geelong; also Captain J. M. and Mrs. Murray, Shanghai, China.

SUTTON.—A tribute to the memory of my dear nephew, Ernest Sutton, Sergt. E. S. V., killed in action at Bullecourt on 3rd May, 1917.

For, God, King and Country.

—Inserted by his Aunt Annie, "Kintail," Geelong.

THANKS.

MR. and MRS. W. WELSH desire to express their Heartfelt THANKS to their many friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy, cards, and letters in their recent sad bereavement.
