

GEELONG AND DISTRICT SOLDIERS.

FALLEN, WOUNDED, MISSING AND BULLETINS.

Two A.I.F. casualty lists, the 206th and 207th, issued last night, contained 1816 names. Summary:—Killed in action, 211; died of wounds, 120; other deaths, 10; wounded 934; missing, 408; sick, 66; injured, 6; prisoner of war, 1. Sixteen have returned to duty and 249 are subjects of progress reports. Geelong and district names:—

Killed in action: Lieut. T. H. E. Haughton, of Geelong, 4/8/16; Pte. A. Johnston, of Lara Lake, 19/7/16; Cnr. A. W. Barnes, of South Geelong, 31/7/16; Sergt. D. A. Elliott, of Belmont, 1/8/16; Pte. J. Connaughton, of Geelong, 24/7/16; and Sergt. C. Brame, of East Geelong 28/7/16

Died of Wounds: Cpl. D. A. Phillips,

Died of Wounds: Cpl. D. A. Phillips, of Geelong, 25/7/16; and Pte. R. M. Boyd, of Geelong, 6/8/16.

Wounded: Pte. A. Schleon, of Geelong; Pte. W. B. Brown, of Geelong West; Pte. A. Wright, of Apollo Bay (third occasion), Pte. L. H. Morrison, of Queenscliff; Lieut. W. R. M. Beaumont, of Geelong; Pte. F. S. E. Stacey, of Mt. Duneed; L.-Cpl. R. M. H. Mathews, of Geelong; Pte. G. R. Lowne, of Meredith; Pte. G. H. Badger, of Birregurra.

Missing: Major T. R. Cunningham, of Geelong; Sergt. J. A. Reid, of Geelong; Pte. L. F. Kennedy, of Geelong; Pte. J. J. Higgins, of Geelong; Sergt. J. C. D. Downie, of Geelong; Pte. F. J. S. M'Kay, of Meredith; Pte. B. Jasper, of Belmont; Pte. H. W. McLean, of Portarlington; Pte. J. R. Thomas, of Geelong; Pte. I. L. Parker, of Geelong West; Pte. W. J. Landy, of Geelong; Pte. A. B. Teary, of Geelong; Pte. J. F. O'Neill, of East Geelong; Pte. C. R. Glew, of South Geelong; Pte. E. G. Hargreaves, of Geelong West; Pte. I. J. Lamb, of Ceres; Pte. R. S. Allen.

J. J. Lamb, of Ceres; Pte. R. S. Allen, of Portarlington; Pte. T. L. Clarke, of Drysdale; Pte. M. T. Coogan, of Lara; Pte. R. L. Trigg, of Geelong; Pte. C. H. Smith, of Ceres; and Pte. W. E. E. Bond, of Geelong.

Ill: Pte. T. Yates, of Geelong

Progress Reports: Cpl. F. P. Ryan, of Geelong West, progressing favorably after dangerous illness; Pte. L. R. S. Clark, of Geelong, removed from dangerously ill list.

Miss E. Lamb of 6 Wellington-street, has received word that Cpl. Ted Game died of wounds on August 22nd. He was employed for a time on the Geelong railways, and was a player of the Geelong West football team.

Nurse Maddern, of Pakington-street, has been advised that her eldest son, Pte. J. S. Maddern, was killed in action in France on July 30th.

Advice has been received by Mrs. S. R. Watson, of Laurel Bank Parade, that her husband, Cpl. S. R. Watson, was wounded in the head on July 18th and is doing well.

of Mechanics street and is doing well.

Mrs. F. Congdon, of Moorabool-street, has been informed that her son, Pte. Chas. Congdon, recently wounded, is progressing favorably.

Mrs. J. Nitchie, of 10 Queen-street, Geelong West, has been notified that her husband, Pte. J. L. Nitchie, has been missing since July 19th.

Mrs. Wood, of Autumn-street, whose nephew, Pte. F. McKay, was reported missing since July 19th, has received a card that he is in hospital at Hastings, England.

Word has been received by Mrs. Reeves, of Myers-street, that her son, Sergt. R. E. Reeves (Bert.), has been reported missing in France from July 19.

A well-known Geelong boy, Albert W. Keown, who was in the Gallipoli landing and wounded in the campaign, has been appointed staff sergeant-major on the Instructional Staff, and is now quartered at Warragul. He recently passed the examination for entry into the officers' school, but the military authorities retained him for staff pur-authorities retained him for state purposes.

Driver Rupert Maconochie, son of Mr. W. Maconochie, an officer of the Education Department, has been wounded in action in France.