

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES & DEATHS

DEATHS.

BALL.—On the 18th July, 1918, at Kalgoorlie, W.A., Joseph, the dearly beloved son of Annie Ball, of Maude-street, Geelong, also loved brother of Annie (Mrs. A. Plant), and George, of Geelong, and Patrick Ball, of W.A.

OKE.—Killed in action 4th July, Cpl. N. K. Oke, 21st Battalion, aged 32 years, beloved youngest son of E. Oke, Geelong, and loving brother of Bert (High School, Ararat), Ronald (Melbourne), Harry and Ruth, loving brother-in-law of Laurie G. Mitchell (on active service).

"His duty nobly done."

IN MEMORIAM.

BRAME.—In loving memory of our dear brother, Sergeant Charles Henry Brame, who was killed at Pozieres on 24th July, 1918.

He was only a sergeant in battle,
Just a part of that great rank and file,
He has nobly done his duty,
And laid down his life with a smile.

A few more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest
Asleep within the tomb.

(His favorite hymn.)

—Inserted by his loving sister, Annie, and brother, Russ, on active service.

BRAME.—In loving memory of our dear brother, Sergt. C. Brame (Charles), who was killed in action somewhere in France, July 24th, 1918, aged 23 years 7 months.

We pictured your safe returning,
And longed to clasp your hand,
But God has postponed the meeting
Till we meet in a better land.

—Inserted by his loving brother and sister-in-law, Alma and Fan Brame.
